IF YOU ARE PLANNING A QUICK ROAD TRIP, THESE ARE THE TWO BEST ROUTES TO EXPLORE:

1. Citrusdal & The Cederberg: Mountains & Rooibos Country

The Drive: About 2 to 2.5 hours from Cape Town via the N7.

The Vibe: Wildflowers blooming against a backdrop of rugged mountain ranges, citrus orchards, and rooibos fields.

Top Stop: De Tol. This child- and pet-friendly hub features the Carmién Tea Shop (offering rooibos pairings and farm tours), De Tol Farm Deli, and the Piekenierskloof Wine Tasting Room.

2. The West Coast: Coastal Blooms & Seafood

The Drive: Just over an hour from Cape Town via the R27.

The Vibe: Colorful floral displays meet pristine white-sand beaches, rolling dunes, and ocean views.

Top Stop: West Coast National Park. The seasonal Postberg section opens exclusively during flower season and is famous for its panoramic, concentrated displays.

Where to Eat & Stay: Paternoster
After exploring the flower routes, unwind in Paternoster, a charming fi shing village known for its whitewashed architecture and fresh coastal lifestyle.

Dine: Catch an ocean-view lunch at Blues Restaurant or The Oyster Lounge; both restaurant offerings are part of Abalone Hotel & Villas.

Stay: Base yourself at Abalone Hotel & Villas. Their "Seaside Reset" winter package costs from R4,641 for two people sharing and includes:

- Two nights of luxury accommodation with daily breakfast.
- A three-course dinner at Blues Restaurant paired with a bottle of Fryer's Cove wine.
- A welcome drink on arrival and a R400 spa voucher per room.

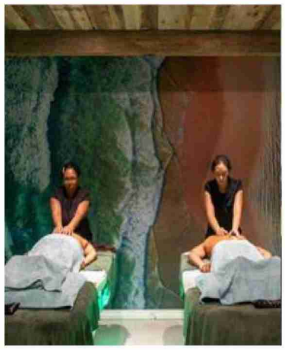

Insider Tip: Wildflowers open fully when the sun is shining and temperatures rise. For the best views, head out between mid-morning and early afternoon on clear days. ✤
